SPRING'S HERE!

Where is she now?

Rumour: former High Queen Grace on Secret Mission for Albion. Nice that getting power doesn't stop a good person from giving it up when it's right for the people.
Well done the Lady of the Lake for picking her! Next!

Does more snow equal more new Albion babies?

The Patriot is keen to know if being snowed in made for more knobbing?
Later this year could be a busy time for midwives! We await more research.

What will hatch in Albion's spring this year?

Queen Esme of Essex: a profile

Probably the most beautiful export from the Kingdom of Wessex, she's well-loved by people all across Albion, and even in Foreign Places! A tough champion of fairness and goodness, she's truly the People's Queen. As the ruler of Essex for some years now, perhaps it's time for another leg up?

THE FACE OF THE GODS OF LAW

Lady Teagan, Champion of the Gods of Law themselves, must be looking forward to a new high monarch being in place. Helping to guide Albion's future and give the people some righteous preaching whilst also putting down evil must be a tough job!

Good thing, then, that the Patriot knows she's up to it, and then some. Loss can break a person or add fuel to the fires of justice. We at the Patriot are fortunate that the Champion chose the latter and got straight back on with the job of fighting for the people! So say we all!

Solkar's Corner: what punishment is best?

Gethan Gaharis: he doesn't seem memorable. Maybe it would be best to forget him? Perhaps after the stone giant, Logrin, has punched him in the face for controlling that ancient Cornish being for so long?
